The contract period for shipment, if such be 31 days or less, shall be extended by an additional period of not more than 8 days, provided that Sellers serve notice claiming extension not later than the next business day following the last day of the originally stipulated period. The notice need not state the number of additional days claimed. Sellers shall make an allowance to Buyers, to be deducted in the invoice from the contract price, based on the number of days by which the originally stipulated period is exceeded, in accordance with the following scale: -

- 1 to 4 additional days, 0.50%;
- 5 or 6 additional days, 1%;
- 7 or 8 additional days 1.50% of the gross contract price.

If, however, after having served notice to Buyers as above, Sellers fail to make shipment within such 8 days, then the contract shall be deemed to have called for shipment during the originally stipulated period plus 8 days, at contract price less 1.50%, and any settlement for default shall be calculated on that basis. (2) Not later than 1600 hours on the next business day, if received after 1600 hours or on a non-business day.
(d) A notice of appropriation served on a Selling Agent or Brokers named in the contract shall be considered an appropriation served on Buyers. A Selling Agent or Brokers receiving a notice of appropriation shall serve like notice of appropriation in accordance with the provisions of this clause. Where the Shipper or subsequent Sellers serves the notice of appropriation on the Selling Agent, such Selling Agent may serve notice of appropriation either direct to the Buyers or to the Brokers.

257 GAFTA Register of Superintendents. Unless otherwise agreed, analysts shall be appointed from the GAFTA
258 Register of Analysts.

261 Where fumigation has been agreed, the terms and conditions of GAFTA Fumigation Rules No. 132 shall be 262 incorporated into this contract.

264 21. PREVENTION OF SHIPMENT

265 "Event of Force Majeure" means (a) prohibition of export or other executive or legislative act done by or on 266 behalf of the government of the country of origin or of the territory where the port or ports named herein is/are 267 situate, restricting export, whether partially or otherwise, or (b) blockade, or (c) acts of terrorism, or (d)
268 hostilities, or (e) strike, lockout or combination of workmen, or (f) riot or civil commotion, or (g) breakdown of 269 machinery, or (h) fire, or (i) ice, or (j) Act of God, or (k) unforeseeable and unavoidable impediments to 270 transportation or navigation, or (l) any other event comprehended in the term "force majeure".

271
272 Should Sellers' performance of this contract be prevented, whether partially or otherwise, by an Event of Force
273 Majeure, the performance of this contract shall be suspended for the duration of the Event of Force Majeure,
274 provided that Sellers shall have served a notice on Buyers within 7 consecutive days of the occurrence or not 275 later than 21 consecutive days before commencement of the shipment period, whichever is later, with the 276 reasons therefor.

278 If the Event of Force Majeure continues for 21 consecutive days after the end of the shipment period, then 279 Buyers have the option to cancel the unfulfilled part of the contract by serving a notice on Sellers not later than 280 the first business day after expiry of the 21 day period.

282 If this option to cancel is not exercised then the contract shall remain in force for an additional period of 14
283 consecutive days, after which, if the Event of Force Majeure has not ceased, any unfulfilled part of the contract
284 shall be automatically cancelled.

285
286 If the Event of Force Majeure ceases before the contract or any unfulfilled part thereof can be cancelled, Sellers
287 shall notify Buyers without delay that the Event of Force Majeure has ceased. Sellers shall be entitled, from the 288 cessation, to as much time as was left for shipment under the contract prior to the occurrence of the Event of 289 Force Majeure. If the time that was left for shipment under the contract is 14 days or less, a period of 14
290 consecutive days shall be allowed.

292 The burden of proof lies upon Sellers and the parties shall have no liability to each other for delay and/or non-
293 fulfilment under this clause, provided that Sellers shall have provided to Buyers, if required, satisfactory
294 evidence justifying the delay or non-fulfilment.

296 22. PRO RATA

297 (a) Should any of the above mentioned quantity form part of a larger quantity of the same or a different period of 298 shipment of bags of the same mark, or of a similar quality, whether in bags or bulk or whether destined to more 299 than one port, no separation or distinction shall be necessary.

300 (b) All loose collected, damaged goods and sweepings shall be shared by and apportioned pro-rata in kind between 301 the various Receivers thereof at the port of discharge named in the contract, buying under contracts containing this 302 clause. In the event of this not being practicable or any of them receiving more or less than his pro-rata share or 303 apportionment, he shall settle with the other(s) on a pro-rata basis in cash at the market price and each Receiver
304 shall bear his proportion of the depreciation in market value. The pro-rata statement shall be established by the 305 Sellers or their Representatives in conjunction with the Receivers or their Representatives.

306 (c) The above pro-rata apportionment between Receivers shall have no bearing on the establishment of final
307 invoices with Sellers and for the purpose of these final invoices, the total quantity of loose collected, damaged
308 goods and sweepings shall be regarded as delivered to those receivers who did not receive their full invoiced
309 quantity.

310 (d) In the case of excess or deficiency, the difference between the invoiced and the total delivered quantity shall be
311 settled at the market price by invoices to be rendered by receivers, who have received more or less than that paid
312 for, to their immediate Sellers without taking into consideration the above pro-rata apportionment between 313 Receivers.

314 (e) If one or more Receivers are delivered in excess and one or more Receivers bears a shortage, the excess and 315 deficiency shall be settled between them at the market price. Invoices shall be established with immediate Sellers
316 for any balance resulting from this settlement.

317 (f) All Shippers, Sellers and Buyers of any part of such larger quantity as aforesaid under contracts containing this
318 clause shall be deemed to have entered into mutual agreements with one another to the above effect, and to agree
319 to submit to arbitration all questions and claims between them or any of them in regard to the execution of this 320 clause as aforesaid in accordance with the Arbitration Clause of this contract. Sellers and Buyers shall give all 321 reasonable assistance in execution of this clause. All Sellers shall be responsible for the settlement by the 322 respective Buyers in accordance with this clause within a reasonable time.

323 (g) The market price wherever mentioned in this clause shall be the market price on the last day of discharge of the 324 vessel in the port of destination, such price to be fixed by arbitration unless mutually agreed.

325 (h) In the event of this clause being brought into operation, any allowances payable in respect of condition, or 326 quality, or under any of the other guarantees contained in this contract, shall be based upon the actual weight
327 received by the Buyers and not on the pro-rata weight.

328 (i) In the event of any conflict in terms of apportionment applicable to the port of discharge the method published
329 by GAFTA shall, where applicable, take precedence over sub-clauses (b) to (h) above.

330 (j) In the event that sub-clause (a) applies or that the goods subsequently become co-mingled, and that the goods
331 were shipped by more than one Shipper and destined for one or more ports of discharge then, after the adjustment
332 between Receivers under the terms of this clause, the Shippers shall settle pro-rata between themselves in 333 proportion to their bill of lading quantities. Such settlements shall be made in cash and in the event of two or more
334 discharging ports being involved, then the settlement price shall be the average of the market prices on the last day
335 of discharge in the respective ports.

336 23. CIRCLE

337 Where Sellers re-purchase from their Buyers or from any subsequent buyer the same goods or part 338 thereof, a circle shall be considered to exist as regards the particular goods so re-purchased, and the 339 provisions of the Default Clause shall not apply. (For the purpose of this clause the same goods shall mean
340 goods of the same description, from the same country of origin, of the same quality, and, where applicable,
341 of the same analysis warranty, for shipment to the same port(s) of destination during the same period of 342 shipment). Different currencies shall not invalidate the circle. Subject to the terms of the Prevention of 343 Shipment Clause in the contract, if a circle is established prior to the goods being appropriated to all
344 parties in the circle, settlement shall be based on the mean contract quantity. However, where a circle is 345 established after the goods have been appropriated to all parties in the circle, settlement shall be based on 346 the appropriated quantity. No circle settlement shall apply where documents have been presented to and 347 paid by one of the parties in the circle. Settlement shall be made between the parties in the circle by 348 payment by all Buyers to their Sellers of the excess of the Sellers' invoice amount over the lowest invoice
349 amount in the circle. Payment shall be due not later than 15 consecutive days after the last day for 350 appropriation, or, should the circle not be ascertained before the expiry of this time, then payment shall be 351 due not later than 15 consecutive days after the circle is ascertained. Where the circle includes contracts
352 expressed in different currencies the lowest invoice amount shall be replaced by the market price on the 353 first day for contractual shipment and invoices shall be settled between each Buyer and his Seller in the 354 circle by payment of the differences between the market price and the relative contract price in currency
355 of the contract. All Sellers and Buyers shall give every assistance to ascertain the circle and when a circle
356 shall have been ascertained in accordance with this clause same shall be binding on all parties to the 357

358 circle. As between Buyers and Sellers in the circle, the non-presentation of documents by Sellers to their 359 Buyers shall not be considered a breach of contract. Should any party in the circle prior to the due date of 360 payment commit any act comprehended in the Insolvency Clause of his contract, settlement by all parties
361 in the circle shall be calculated at the closing out price as provided for in the Insolvency Clause, which 362 shall be taken as a basis for settlement, instead of the lowest invoice amount in the circle. In this event
363 respective Buyers shall make payment to their Sellers or respective Sellers shall make payment to their 364 Buyers of the difference between the closing out price and the contract price.

365 24. NOTICES

366 (a) All notices required to be served on the parties pursuant to this contract shall be served in legible form by E-367 mail, or by other mutually recognised electronic method of rapid communication, always subject to the 368 provision that if receipt of any notice is contested, the burden of proof of transmission shall be on the sender
369 who shall, in the case of a dispute, establish, to the satisfaction of the arbitrator(s) or board of appeal appointed 370 pursuant to the Arbitration Clause, that the notice was actually transmitted to the addressee.

385 to sell or purchase, as the case may be, against the defaulter, and such sale or purchase shall establish the default
